Activity Report 2019-20

1. 19th November 2019 – ‘International Men’s Day Celebration’ was organized at 1.30 pm, seminar Hall. For the first time, the international men’s day was celebrated in the college with great pomp and enthusiasm. The College seminar hall, was packed with amélange of audience, of all age and strata, beaming with awe and expectation. The variety programmes were planned and executed with the main objective of promoting gender equity and women empowerment, and to alter gender stereotypes. The innovative events of the day were amusing and ensued wide interest, especially, amidst the girls- spectators who greatly enjoyed the innovative twist and the spectacle of role reversal. As priorly envisaged, the unconventional and avant-garde celebration of the International Men’s Day Celebration not only ear-marked the day as immemorable, but also successfully enabled to achieve the ultimate goals of the Mytri: Gender Equity Club, ie., promoting gender equity goals and amity among the youth, and aided to drastically level the invisible gender gaps, to a great extent, within the campus.

– organized by Women Study Unit to create awareness among youth against the different forms of violence women have to tackle in their lives, by organizing diverse programmes.

1. Poster making competition on the Focal theme

2. Exhibition of Posters.
3. Essay writing competition –“How to build a society where women are not Harassed?”

5.24th January 2020 – ‘National Girl Child Day Celebration’ or “Balika Dhinam” was organized by WSU, for the first time in the campus, by arranging a vividly memorable programme stringing together variety of purposeful programmes. Dr. Noufal, principal in charge of the day, delivered a heart-touchingly sincere inaugural address, highlighting the greatness of women in making life meaningful. The next event was the ‘Honouring Ceremony’ of single- girl children’ of the campus. Each and every single-girl child was crowned and was rewarded with a cute gift. The Poster Making competition was participated by more than 50 students including all the members of the WSU, who created eloquently expressive posters highlighting diverse and disturbing women’s issues. The Quiz Competition which was the highlight of the event was enthusiastically participated by the audience. The quiz master of the programme was the whip-smart and intuitive young faculty, Miss. Rithu, from the Linguistics Dept. This pioneering quiz event by WSU was organized to create awareness concerning the land mark events that changed the lives of women in history. An on the spot and innovative Mass-Essay writing competition was organized for the entire audience ,with around hundred entries. The topic was ‘ How to build a society for women sans harassment’. The Oratory Competition, more than as a speech competition for girls, was intended to give them a platform to voice their perturbing concerns regarding the steadily deteriorating women’s safety, in our society.

6.8th March 2020 – ‘Mytri Gender forum’ members (23 students - 21 boys and 2 girls ) taken from college for participation in the women’s day celebration organized by the Women study Centre, Kerala University & participation in the Anti- Dowry Oath taking Ceremony. This short trip to the society was a welcome change to the students to experience what is happening in the world at large.

7. Two all -women teams were sent from the college to participate in the ‘Kerala University Youth Festival’. They represented two competitive items and performed well. Their performance in the two items Mime and Nadanpattu (Folk song competition) were well appreciated and motivated other students to come forward without any inhibitions. The ten girls participated in the two-day programme. Their two days accommodation, travel and food were Sponsored by Women’s Study Unit. Their attire and accessories were sponsored by the college.
