WOMEN'S STUDY UNIT ACTIVITIES 2016-2017

A total of 12 students took women's studies as their extension activity of which 6 girls were from B.Com (Co-operation), 2 from Travel and Tourism (TTM) and 4 girls were from B.Sc (Chemistry). They success fully completed 40 hours of activities comprising of taking part in debates and discussions, compiling a Media -file, created posters prepared a questionnaire and each took part in a Social survey to investigate the various issues faced by women in the contemporary society.

Convening together on Friday afternoons they debated, discussed, read and noted down suggestions to tackle many enticing problems women face in the world around. They tuned themselves to empowerment ideas and pledged themselves to bring positive difference to themselves and the society society.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION: 2016-17

Mannaniya college campus embraced a most festive look till date on occasion of international women's day commemorated ceremony held during March 2016. The entire student community was in high fervor and spirits to welcome the young and vibrant chief guest of the day's programme, Adv. Veena Nair, who is also a well acclaimed actress, media personality and a social activist the entire college union designates women community and the union chairman accorded era warm welcome amidst the festive mood. Being one of the youth icons she charmed the audience with her vivacious personality and enthusiastic speech. She tried to instill confidence and motivation in the girls with her empowering words. The other distinguished guests at the venue too seemed inspired as they shared the vibrant mood she emanated and talked in a very positive spirit.

The afternoon session seemed contagious of the vibrant sparks illuminated in the preceding forenoon session, as reflected in the sparkling performance of the cultural programmes. The pomp and the festive spirit of the day concluded with prize distribution as well as light snacks and refreshments served to cheer them by the women study volunteers.