

MANNANIYA COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCE

Focus Group Discussion

6.1.2 Report

A case study has been conducted to evaluate decentralised and participative management in the college. Two types of research instruments have been used for data collection and data presentation procedure. The first one is focus group discussion incorporating samples population directly involved with the management system of the college.

Focus group members were the following:- 27 Teachers and 50 students and others including members from PTA, Alumni, and College Council. Other than the Principal, The management body and the Heads of the Department were included in the case study.

Transcript of the Focus Group Discussion

Out of the 27 faculty members, 20 were strongly agree with the active participation of Decentralization and participative management of the institution. PTA and Alumni representatives also agree with this.

All the teachers strongly agree with the proper functioning of the Staff Council.

67 % of students agree with the effective running of student council.

66 % faculty members stated their comment towards verygood running of college administration.

54 % teachers strongly agree with the proper involvement of the management in the academic activities of the college.

All the teachers and majority students strongly agree with the effective functioning of the College Level Monitoring Committee (CLMC) and Department level monitoring Committee (DLMC).

Majority of the respondents satisfied with the activities of the various bodies, cells and clubs functioning in the college.

All the faculty members are highly satisfied with the institutional support towards Faculty Development Programmes.

Majority of the respondents stated that there is a very good institutional support towards co curricular and extra curricular activities.

[Signature]
Principal
Mannaniya College of Arts & Science
P. Panagala, Tirunelveli (TN.)